CAREERS ADVICE

If you can't decide what career path to take, never fear, we're here for you. We provide Careers Education, Information, Advice and Guidance (CEIAG) to help you identify suitable career pathways.

We can:

- Provide CEIAG in schools, one to one or even visit you at home

One of our IAG staff can meet with you to find a suitable pathway, which we then help to organise. It might be further training, employment, an apprenticeship, or another route.

We know that a plan that works for one person might not work for another, so we treat you as an individual to find a solution that fits your needs.

Study Programme Case Study

P&S Timbrell Decorators Ltd.

Liam Carter

At Prospect Training Services (PTS), we foster bright minds for brighter futures. Our goal is to transform aspirations into achievements, and we will help our learners every step of the way throughout their journeys with us – that's a guarantee. No dream is too big; whether they're starting from the top or the bottom, we will be there no matter what it takes.

Liam Carter started with PTS last August with a goal in mind: to take GCSE English and Functional Skills Maths Level 2, but did he want to stop there? Of course not. Liam, like many of our learners, wanted to also do some work experience to coincide with his studies. After doing a Level 1 Plumbing course at a local college and deciding this wasn't right for him, he then set his sights on a new venture: painting and decorating.

Once our Careers and Work Placement Coordinator, Kath Chapman, was made aware of this ambition and scoured our data log for local, trusted employers, she finally came across P&S Timbrell Decorators Ltd. With her full support and confidence in Liam's abilities, Kath then asked Liam whether he'd like to contact the employer himself, which he valiantly accepted.

After P&S Timbrell was approached by Liam, they were more than happy to take him on for some work experience. During his time there, the painting and decorating company supported him with various tasks and allowed him to join them going from job to job, helping where he could. Not only this, but they also went above and beyond and helped Liam with some of his academic studies, something he really appreciated. By the end of his placement, they even commented that Liam was "very keen to learn and showed a very good work ethic." We are absolutely over the moon that Liam excelled during his time at P&S Timbrell, and we are very grateful for them finding the time to take him on.

When asked about his time so far at PTS and the support provided, Liam didn't hesitate to comment that "I found it really helpful, and it's done me good. Before I had no job and wasn't doing well, so I'm thankful." He also mentioned that "I would recommend PTS to other young people, as they have given me a really good opportunity in life and have helped me a lot."

Liam did so well during his time with his employers that they have gone on to offer him an apprenticeship; wow! He will now be going to Bristol for a two-year course, and then he will be a fully qualified painter and decorator – how amazing, right?

Well done, Liam! We wish you the best of luck for the future.

Study Programme Case Study

O'Connor Pharmacies Ltd.

Khadijah Henry

Changing lives and transforming futures is what we're about here at Prospect Training Services (PTS). Our staff work meticulously to ensure our learner's goals are met; we have several Tutors, Learner/Pastoral Support Workers, Enrichment and Employability Tutors, Work Placement and Careers Coordinators, Safeguarding Leads and trained Mental Health Support Workers who are there to support our young people whenever they need them.

Khadijah Henry has been the latest learner who has reaped the benefits from our services. Khadijah recently came to us all the way from Jamaica in search of education and a new life for herself in England – this is a similar story for lots of our learners. While she was in Jamaica, Khadijah took a Hair and Beauty course, but she knew this wasn't quite what she wanted; what she wanted was to delve into the world of Pharmacy. As soon as she met with our Work Placement and Careers Coordinator, she discussed this need to explore experience in this job industry, and we got searching for potential businesses straightaway.

It wasn't long before we found O'Connor Pharmacies Ltd. in Gloucester, who were more than happy to take Khadijah on for some valuable work experience. Kelly Lee Dispenser, who was there to support her during this time, was there to advise and train Khadijah on the different types of medication and how to carry out everyday tasks; she loved getting to work with patients and navigating what was needed for different people. During this time, Kelly mentioned that Khadijah was "a lovely young lady with good manners and a willingness to learn and adapt to new things" – this is what we love to hear!

At the end of her placement, Khadijah said, "I have learnt a lot of new things in my work experience and learnt about different medicines. The support from Kelly was really appreciated." When asked about her time so far on her programme, which is Work Experience as well as GCSE English and Maths, she emphasised that "it has been good, very positive, and anything I am going through I can get help with. The bursary has helped me towards costs, and the Skills for Work and Skills for Life sessions teach me more about life than I would at school." To further this, when asked if she would recommend a PTS course to other young people, Khadijah said, "Yes, I would. Not only can you take your exams, but you also learn more about life and the world of work. You also get a lot of support."

Well done, Khadijah! We wish you best of luck with the rest of your programme.

UNLOCK YOUR POTENTIAL, SHAPE YOUR FUTURE.
